Footnotes

ALOTTA WILD unhurried leaving the chute, chased off the rail, advanced three wide into the lane, reeled in pacesetter from the outside and powered past nearing the wire under hand urging. PHIL'LUCKY' dueled briefly outside foe then set pace while bit off the fence, padded cushion around the bend, continued on two wide path but could hold off winner. A SONG AT TWILIGHT hopped leaving the gate but quickly recovered, tracked leaders on two wide path, between horses in the drive and finished evenly. DOUBLE DEE CASH dueled briefly then forced the pace from along the rail, lost contact on the bend, remained inside and lacked any late response. TRACK MAJESTY reared when the gate opened and was left well behind the field then trailed throughout while saving ground.
