Footnotes

WARREN'S CARLIE was bumped leaving backstretch chute by outside foe, dueled or forced the early pace from the inside, gained lead early on the turn, quickly disposed of rivals around the bend, padded cushion and comfortably held. SOMETHINGABOUTERRI settled off the pace and outside foe, chased two wide on the turn, gained the rail then rallied some and safely held the place. ROYAL LAC DU was off bit slow and bumped then squeezed back in opening strides, chased inside, was in tight along the rail leaving the backstretch, taken off the rail, came three wide into the lane and finished strongly. HOT CINDER came in early and bumped with inside rival, contested the pace three abreast, dropped back around the turn, came out some and weakened. ASHABU reserved from between foes, later gained the rail, continued inside and lacked needed response. TO THE TOP was bumped leaving the gate then shortly after the start, dueled from between foes to the bend, dropped back then gave way in the stretch.
