Footnotes

SPRING DREAM showed early speed and held the early advantage, raced clear into the stretch, then resisted through the lane and held off foe gamely to the wire. UNCLE BEV stumbled leaving the gate, steadied briefly off the heels of SPRING DREAM early, settled off the pace, took the turn four wide, rallied, from the outside but was denied by the winner. DEBT FREE ABBY stalked the leader to the turn, saved ground into the lane and closed well from the rail. PURDY MISS BIRDIE chased just off the leader down the backstretch, was off the rail to the stretch and weakened. STORMIN BLESSING raced along the inside into the turn, angled entering the stretch and proved no menace. There was a riders claim of foul by the rider of UNCLE BEV against the winner for alleging interference early in the race. The steward disallowed the objection since UNCLE BEV stumbled and was off slow to begin.
