Footnotes

WYLIE N WYATT quickly stepped to the front, stretched lead into and around the turn from slightly off the rail and comfortably prevailed under strong handling. CRIMINAL INTENTION close up early from outside leader, stalked pace while two then three wide and held the place under hard right hand asking. CAPTAIN SHAWN D forwardly placed early, chased while outside rival, continued three then four wide into the stretch and was along late for third. SPANKSTER dropped back from the inside nearing the turn, angled off the fence, chased two wide and between rivals,rallied along the inside in the lane but was overtaken for third. KOPRITI settled off the rail, raced three wide then between foes into and on the turn, continued on same path and lacked any response. STRONG DEEDS reserved while widest of all, remained four wide on the turn and into the stretch and was no factor. GREY RAE showed brief early speed then stalked while bit off the fence, gained the rail on turn, remained inside and weakened.
