Footnotes

LOTTO CAT fell back after the start, moved out to be four wide for the drive, roused, finished with good late energy to be clear at the wire. COTEAU CAT off the early pace, moved closer along the inside late in the final turn, lacked room while continuing along the rail midstretch, squeezed through, up late for the place. HELLCAT SENIOR settled off the pace and the inside, came three wide while between foes into the lane, outfinished for the place. JOHN'S BROWN BEAR vied up front early while between foes, got clear before a half, could not last. SING IN THE STORM vied early while closest to the inside, continued along the rail, came off the inside a bit to relinquish the rail to the runner up when beginning to weaken inside the furlong marker, continued to falter late. LATCH LIGHTING vied early while three wide, continued forwardly until the stretch and faltered. ITSALLBOUTTHECHASE last to leave, raced outside into the first turn, never threatened. NATIVE BOY off the pace, raced four wide and in the second group out of the turn, faltered. ROCK HARD failed to make an impact. ALLIE'S TABOO fell back to trail after the start, well beaten.
