Footnotes

EVIL OFFICER with the early pace while between rivals, fell back into the turn, moved out, engaged the leader from the outside past the furlong marker, drew clear under pressure. SAN PACIFICO also with the early pace while between horses, fell back off the leader into the turn, came back and got that rival for the place while not a threat to the winner late. ROGIYA contested the early pace outside, shook clear into the turn, continued to lead by daylight into the lane, could not last. HOURS TO SHINE lacked speed in racing off the pace, came five wide out of the turn, went evenly down the stretch while remaining well out in the strip. SOUTHERN SAINT flashed brief speed along the inside and began to fade after a quarter. PEANUT TWO last away, trailed throughout in showing little.
