Footnotes

SIZZLIN SOUTH, away best of all, sprinted clear, was given a breather through the turn and held sway in the drive under steady handling. AUTO BE A PRO, outrun early, rallied four wide into the stretch and finished willingly to be slowly getting to the winner. BRITTSKER settled off the pace while inside, raced behind a wall of horses into the stretch and also finished well while closest to the inside. RUNAWAY VENUS, last away while being bothered slightly at the start, ranged up to become a threat three wide late in the turn then flattened out in the drive. JOANIE, closest to the winner outside that one for a half, had little left for the stretch. BRIEF VALENTINE was not a threat and trailed most of the way.
