Footnotes

TRACAS broke with the field, raced off the early pace, four wide through the turn, challenged on the outside inside the furlong grounds, wore the runner up down late under steady handling. PRIVATE G M Q vied up front while closest to the inside early, shook clear in the turn, continued to hold a daylight advantage nearing the furlong marker, gave ground grudgingly to the winner until late, remained clear of the others. LEA JEANETTE vied early outside the runner up, chased that foe through and out of the turn, lacked closing response, saved the show. HIGH LOVER off the pace and the inside, raced five wide through the turn, staged a mild rally in the drive while remaining well out in the strip. ISABELLA'S HOPE asked early to move up to a position in mid pack along the inside, saved ground through the turn, lacked a serious response in the drive. DEBONAIRE DOLL last away, raced back, displayed a modest amount of late interest up the inside. SLOWLY BUT SHIRLEY off the pace and the inside, failed to muster a rally when called on in the drive. MINISTERS

FIRST forwardly placed in the early going, began a steady retreat before three furlongs. WITT'S EXPECTATION also tired from her early efforts. JOSEPH COUNTDOWN was never involved. JIANNA'S PEGASUS never close. SOMEDAY MAYBE raced outside, pulled up lame early in the turn.
