Footnotes

A. P. JOE showed the way past the wire the first time, clear in the run up the backstretch while in hand, responded when challenged turning for home, headed nearing the furlong marker, found more to regain the advantage, extended lead a sixteenth out, enough left to hold the runner up safe. BERRY TOWN lacked speed, four wide turning for home, roused, slowly getting to the winner late. COLD HARD BISQUIT closest to the leader, fell back a bit the middle half, in some traffic turning for home while saving ground, continued up the rail to regain the show. REBEL ROCKET bumped a bit start, settled off the pace, ranged up closer on the outside late in the final turn, dueled with the winner upper straight, put a head in front just outside the furlong marker, faltered in the late going. NOPE last away, raced back for six furlongs, came into the lane from between foes, lodged a mild rally while posing a serious threat. HUSKYVILLE settled off the pace inside, moved out to be three wide final turn, lacked the needed response in the drive. SPEEDY BLEU closest to the winner up the backstretch, gave way in the drive. JAMI ROAD a bit fractious in the gate, bumped at the start, raced back and was never a threat.

DOUBLE DOWN DELTA tired from early efforts. YOUNG AUSTIN finished after a half.
