Footnotes

OUR QUISTA away in good order, briefly vied between foes, showed the way into the turn, turned back a tepid bid midway on the bend, drew off upper stretch, not threatened to the wire while under her own courage to win with something left. GINA'S BISCUIT stumbled at the start then broke in, four wide into the lane, roused, clearly second best under continued firm handling and out in the strip. FOUR TIMES FOUR reluctant to load, vied early outside the winner, fell back off that one before a quarter, lodged a mild rebid midway on the turn, no match in the drive, also offered little resistance to the runner up, comfortably saved the show. PRIVATE DUCHESS within striking distance outside, moved a bit closer on the outside in the turn, lacked a further response in the drive to finish up evenly. DAFFODIL LADY off slowly, raced well back, passed tiring foes after the issue had been decided. FOOLISH REFORM cut off start, trailed far back, also picked off faltering rivals while not a threat. FAITH VALENTINE failed to menace, pulled off short after wire, vanned off. IRON IZZY tired while racing four wide. ANGELTU PET flashed brief speed and stopped.
