Footnotes

J. BURLE broke through the gate prior to the start, away alertly, set all the pace while rating, held sway through the lane under steady handling. HOWELL PARK away in good order, closest to the winner off the inside, could do little with that rival through the stretch, clearly second best. RAIDER WELLS last to leave, void of early foot, split foes turning for home, staged a mild rally, no match for the top two. LONE STAR PIE went one paced throughout along the inside in lacking a late bid. LOUISIANA BANDIT closest to the top two for six furlongs, tired while three wide.
