Footnotes

INVISIBLE FORCE devoid of any speed for six furlongs, roused, three wide out of the final turn, angled out for room, closed with a flourish to be in time. C W'S LAST HOPE slight bother, last away, tucked to the inside just after the start, saved ground, began a steady gain after a half, roused, late bid between foes, missed. TIZ A SCHOLAR settled off the pace and the inside, clipped heels, took up into the far turn, fell back, recovered into the lane, advanced toward the inside, eased out, split foes and also lodged a late bid. FESTIVE DANCER with the pace, alternated up front in the run up the backstretch, disposed of the other speed in the second turn, could not last. PEGGY'S PRETTY BOY stalked the pace off the inside, appeared to come and tight up a pair of inner foes into the far turn, came up empty for the drive. YAHOOTIE TIME broke alertly, raced with striking distance along the inside, steadied slightly when put in tight entering the far turn, also lacked a bid in the drive. EASTERNER four wide into the first turn when with the first flight, dueled for the lead the middle half mile off the inside, gave way in the drive. GAYLE'S FAN never a threat. ELOQUICK was finished after a half. BUBBALEWSKI in the second flight off the inside into the lane, stopped.
