Footnotes

FLEE THE POSSE vied up front for a half, garnered a longer lead into the far turn, got clear into the stretch and held sway. ILE ST. LOUISVILLE well back off the early pace, advanced in the second turn, five wide turning for home, proved no match for the winner, proved game to earn part of the place. STONE SKIPPER within striking distance early, fell back a bit backstretch, improved slightly three wide into the lane, closest to the winner a furlong out, also proved no match for that rival while finishing on equal terms with ILE ST. LOUISVILLE for the place. CARSON CONNECTION back early, improved position dropped to the inside for the drive, also went evenly to the wire. MR MILITARY off the pace, moved closer after a half, came five wide out of the final turn, lacked a late kick as well. LUCKY A. C. pressured the winner early, dueled briefly, chased again, weakened. SPEEDFACTORSIN five wide in the first turn, continued outside, tired after six furlongs. PATSY'S PROM DATE settled outside, seven wide turning for home, tired. DANGER INTENTION broke awkwardly, trailed, picked off some tiring foes after the issue had been decided. PIERRE PICO never menaced. NIGERIAN WARRIOR was finished early. HOLD FAST stopped after a half and was distanced.
