Footnotes

JOSATA four wide through the first turn, advanced into the far turn outside, dropped to the inside turning for home, rail bid, in time. EMPRESS JACQUELINE in the second group off the rail, rallied three wide into the stretch, up late for the place. BASICA forwardly placed, quickly took over in the far turn, well clear into the lane, could not contain the top two late. KITTY VIOLET last away, raced back, staged a mild rally four wide out of the final turn. ZIPPIT HONEY seven wide into the first turn, angled in a bit but continued outside, five wide through the second bend, improved. R S VALENTINE void of early foot, angled in to save some ground in the second turn, moved back out a bit for the drive, was going evenly late. CRAZY COUNTESS got clear before a quarter, larger advantage before a half, weakened in the far turn when headed. K D S ONE six wide into the first turn, had little left for the drive. SIPPIT FEVER was not a threat. ROCK 'TIL DAWN closest to the early leader for a half, gave way. LORENZO'S LOVE settled off the pace, steadily faded. DANCING DUDETE gave way early, pulled up, vanned off.
