Footnotes

ARCH away in good order, stalked the pace three wide, challenged on the outside midway on the second turn, got clear and maintained a daylight advantage under a firm hand ride to win ridden out. CLASSIC CAT allowed the pace to go, moved strongly into a striking position the fourth quarter, but could do little with the winner through the stretch. SIR TIFF narrowly set the pace along the inside, weakened in the drive and finished best of the rest. HOUSTON SLUE saved ground for a mile, angled out and made a mild late gain. A FLEETS DANCER off bit slow, came on the outside into the stretch and was going evenly late. EARLY WARNING pressed the leader, gained a brief lead three furlongs out then faltered through the stretch. SOPHISTICATED MAN was always back.
