Footnotes

SMART GUY prompted the pace two wide, drew even leaving the quarter pole, drew clear in mid stretch and steadily widened under left handed pressure. SCOOTCH saved ground early, was urged along near the three furlong marker, angled three wide nearing the lane and finished willingly to be second best. RED STAR ROSE, void of speed, was set down nearing the far turn and failed to respond. TIPDOVER drew clear into the backstretch, set the pace along the inside, was collared near the quarter pole and tired in mid stretch. A CALL TO POST was outrun. FOUNDATION, three wide, raced close up for six furlongs and faltered.
