Footnotes

WHO DAT BOY , snugly rated saving ground and up close to the leader, sat patiently allowing rivals to go on some nearing the far turn, angled four wide while remaining under rating leaving the far turn, quickly gained approaching the quarter pole, poked a head in front in upper stretch, dueled under solid urging and held firm. SNAP IT cleared early, set the pace under nice handling, edged away from tracking rivals mid way on the final turn, was confronted by the winner entering the stretch, dueled inside that one through the final three sixteenths, drifted out late and kept on gamely. PARABOLA , four wide the first turn, settled off the pace, angled in for the drive, made a slight run in mid stretch then flattened out. MARSHALL , taken to rate, circled five wide into the stretch and rallied mildly. PONCE INTO SPRING lacked speed, angled out in upper stretch but failed to menace. NINTH CLIENT , three wide the first turn, moved closer after a half mile, gave chase under a ride leaving the three eighths pole, failed to go on and tired in upper stretch. RADIO RELAY prompted the pace two wide, came under a drive after six furlongs, failed to respond and faltered in upper stretch.
