Footnotes

OUR COMMANDER , four wide into the first turn, prompted the pace two wide down the backstretch, moved to command after six furlongs, kicked away entering the lane, responded to stout urging through the final furlong and prevailed. BID TIL INCLUDED settled off the rail, angled out and lost ground four wide from the five eighths pole, advanced four wide nearing the lane, closed gamely through the final eighth and just missed. PHIL'S PROSPECT eased out off the rail entering the backstretch, moved up between rivals nearing the far turn, chased the pace into the stretch then could not gain in the late stages. SAY CHEESE was rated along three wide between horses down the backstretch, angled out four wide entering the stretch and finished up willingly. FIREFIGHTER rated off the rail around the clubhouse turn, moved closer into the far turn to stalk the pace, was under a rider nearing the lane and weakened in upper stretch. CAJUN QUICKSTEP was sent up three wide between rivals into the first turn to take command, moved clear after a quarter mile, set the pace along the rail, took pressure into the far turn, dueled inside the winner past the five sixteenths pole then tired in upper stretch. GHOST STAG lagged back while saving ground, angled out leaving the far turn and failed to respond. WESTVIRGINIA CABIN was steadied briefly around the first turn, stalked the pace while saving ground, raced forwardly for five furlongs then faltered.
