Footnotes

MEAN SEASON opened up on rivals early while off the rail, set a rapid pace under a light hold, moved out to an insurmountable advantage around the turn, drifted in briefly in upper stretch, then was guided back out some, had his rider draw the whip near the three sixteenths marker, found no reason to use it after measuring rivals then basically coasted home through the final furlong. THURMONT bumped with IRISH HUMOR leaving the gate, settled well off the early pace, angled five wide gathering momentum into the stretch then finished well once straightened. DARE ME , taken to rate early, edged up between rivals leaving the three and a half furlong pole, angled four wide, came in slightly in upper stretch, was corrected and kept on gamely to the finish. STANDING POINT was sent up between runners early to chase the pace, kept on under pressure to upper stretch then gave way. IRISH HUMOR came in at the break and bumped with THURMONT, made a slight rail advance into the turn, chased and faltered through the drive. DISTILLER was taken three wide early, pursued the winner to mid turn then dropped back. ULYSSES S. GRANT , wide early, was pulled up nearing the stretch and was vanned off.
