Footnotes

HONOUR ISABEL prompted the pace three wide, gained a short advantage past the three sixteenths marker, responded to strong encouragement in mid stretch when clear then held safe under a drive. PORLAMAR lost ground four wide, moved closer mid turn, loomed a danger in mid stretch, continued gamely but was second best. RHYME N RHYTHM close up between rivals, was urged along mid turn, angled in and made a mild rail run in mid stretch then flattened out. LITTLE KOPPER GIRL bobbled at the break, moved up between rivals to gain the early lead, set a pressured pace two wide, was headed in upper stretch and weakened leaving the eighth pole. CITY SONG was angled in around the far turn, entered the lane three wide under a ride but lacked a solid finish. KAYLBARB broke slowly, came four wide for the drive but failed to threaten. SHIRLEYANDMARGARET forced the early pace along the rail, chased around the turn then weakened entering the stretch.
