Footnotes

CHAMBERS BAY chased the pace three deep, took command on the turn then steadily drew out under brisk urging. JOHN FRANCIS stalked the pace, advanced four wide on the turn to reach a striking position, chased the winner through the stretch and was second best. IRISH BEAU disputed the pace outside SEA LORD and weakened in upper stretch. SEA LORD hugged the rail, dueled and gave way in upper stretch. HUNTER circled the turn in three path and retreated through the stretch. SNAPPY stalked the pace and faded through the stretch. SECOND ROUND, outrun, was eased. DOUBLE ROSSO swerved out leaving the starting gate, moved up five deep leaving the backstretch, stopped and was eased.
