Footnotes

BIG BOPER sped to the front, set the pace near the rail, lasted under urging and drifted out near the wire. WOHALI , steadied in traffic inside horses near the four and a half furlongs pole, swung wide in midstretch, rallied and was steadied on the heels of the winner near the wire. CRACK THE OPUS , four wide around the turn, chased the winner in an even effort. FISSATO , three wide on the turn, chased the pace and weakened. ZURS lacked speed and passed tired rivals. PICKIN N SINGIN , six wide turning for home, was no factor. BATON , wide entering the stretch, was not a factor. VIOLETTE JULIET hugged the rail and gave way. DOCTOR AVI was no factor. COUNTRY WATER , eight wide entering the stretch, was outrun. MATANUSKA PASSION , steadied when pinched back soon after the break, was outrun and lugged in near the eighth pole. An objection by the rider of WOHALI against the winner for alleged interference in deep stretch was not allowed.
