Footnotes

FURMAN BISHER , snugly rated three wide, gained command leaving the turn, opened up in midstretch and was kept to his business in the drive. FASTEST JAMES , very wide around the turn, entered the stretch in the six path, drifted in and brushed with CAPT TOPRIDGE near the quarter pole and closed nicely late. MR. TIME TO GO bore in leaving the starting gate, advanced in the three path on the turn, moved up inside horses to reach a striking position entering the stretch and weakened in the drive. WOODBURNER saved ground on the turn, eased out approaching the stretch, drifted out near the quarter pole, worked between horses and passed tired ones. SUN SONG , four wide around the turn, chased the pace to midstretch then faltered the final furlong. CAMP TOPRIDGE , very wide entering the stretch, brushed with FASTEST JAMES near the quarter pole and weakened. TOUCH WITH A PUNCH disputed the pace outside SILVER STREAK and faltered. SILVER STREAK saved ground, dueled and stopped. IRUNALATTE , wide on the turn, stopped.
