Footnotes

DAKOTA SIS quickly went clear, set a solid pace in the two path, responded to strong pressure in mid stretch and edged away. STEPH'S BULLET leaned in at the break and bumped with ALL METTLE, stalked the winner three wide, moved closer nearing the quarter pole to loom, continued willingly but was no match late. ALL METTLE, bumped at the break to be away a beat slow, was urged along saving ground off the pace, shifted out wide near the furlong marker and had some belated action. MARGARET MARY, well back for three furlongs, raced very wide in the drive and had some late interest. DAYS LIKE THIS stalked behind the winner while in the two path and weakened in mid stretch.
