Footnotes

PURELY HOT prompted the pace three wide, gained a short lead entering the stretch, opened a clear lead in midstretch, dug in late and narrowly prevailed while lightly brushing with TANKA in deep stretch. TANKA stalked the pace, entered the stretch in the four path, gamely closed the gap and lightly brushed with the winner late. MIDNIGHT RAMBLE, slow to find her stride, advanced five wide on the turn, reached a striking position in upper stretch and tired the final furlong. CHANTERELLE, swung four wide entering the stretch, had a mild rally. SPRING DATE, unhurried early, passed tired horses. OVERNIGHT FLING, very wide turning for home, was not a factor. A NEW DAWN hugged the rail, disputed the pace and weakened in midstretch. ALERT CAT dueled two wide between horses and gave way in upper stretch. JENS ANGEL hugged the rail and was done on the turn. SWIFT FEATHER, well off the rail, was outrun. WAY DOWN TOWN broke sluggishly, raced along the rail and was outrun.
