Footnotes

HENRY STREET lodged a rail bid to command nearing the half mile marker, set a quick pace along the rail, widened nearing mid stretch then held sway under right handed pressure. SHAMSS was hung out four and five wide most of the trip and closed willingly. PROUD FORTUNE , four wide into the turn forcing the issue, continued a forward factor to upper stretch and came up empty in the final furlong. PATSON saved ground, swung out wide in mid stretch and finished with interest. CREVE COEUR vied between rivals into the turn, dropped back some around the turn and came up empty. TIGG HUR , three wide between rivals early, pressed the pace and weakened in the drive. CHASIN TIGER failed to menace. TSUNAMI TOMMY , wide, was not a factor.
