Footnotes

BIG JOHN A. R. set the pace inside, took pressure mid way on the turn, shook back clear in upper stretch, drifted out some leaving the eighth pole, raced on his left lead and dug in to prevail. TAKE DOWN TWO stalked the pace towards the inside, lodged a bid between rivals mid turn, loomed past the eighth pole then hung. FIELD TRIP was rated back off the early lead and was removed from the rail, advanced four wide entering the lane, continued willingly but wasn't quite good enough. ALONG CAME REAGAN rushed up early, forced the pace three wide to the head of the lane then tired. OUT TO PLEASE saved ground, moved a bit closer into the far turn, chased the leaders around the turn then tired. PROUD MCKEE , two wide between rivals early, gave way. FLATLANDER , three wide between rivals early, faltered.
