Footnotes

THUNDEROUS G saved ground under rating, angled out a path mid turn and then moved up just off the heels of FIELD PASS, tipped out three wide in upper stretch, responded when shaken up soon after, forged to command in mid stretch, was roused once left handed, kicked away and drifted in late while being taken in hand. FIELD PASS, three wide past the five eighths pole, took closer order into the far turn, bid two wide with three furlongs to go, edged clear in upper stretch but proved no match in the final furlong while well clear of the rest. COACH FRIDGE lagged back early while off the rail, commenced a run near the three eighths pole, ranged up four wide approaching the stretch then flattened out. ZABARAJAD (IRE) saved ground around the turn and failed to menace. SPELLIT sprinted clear early, set the pace towards the rail, took pressure around the turn, held well to upper stretch then weakened. BULAGA, away awkwardly, moved up off the rail in the opening quarter mile, gave futile chase around the turn and weakened. CANUTA, three wide, faded.
