Footnotes

BIEN NICOLE tracked the pace, drew even near the five-sixteenths pole, was asked for her best at the top off the stretch, and drew clear under steady urging. SUMMERHILL GAL settled while saving ground, was moved to four off the rail on the backstretch, roused on the final turn, and finished willingly in the stretch for second. WOLFNIK set the clear pace, was headed entering the stretch, and weakened. WILD SQUAW was off a tad slow, raced in the second flight, roused near the five-sixteenths pole, but failed to respond. HILLARY (GER) saved ground to no avail. BLACK TIE GLORY crossed over after the start, and trailed the field throughout.
