Footnotes

MARQUET CAT rated a short lead two deep, was pressured for run into the stretch and held well under a steady drive. HARLEQUIN SKY rated off the pace and off the rail, picked up the chase into the final turn and reached place the final stride. BLOOD MOON rated close to the pace three wide, held aim through the final turn, veered in on the heels of the winner in the upper stretch, remained a close factor in the stretch but was outfinished for place just under the wire. FIRST KING, unhurried outside, bid into the final turn and proved empty through the lane. G. POLI raced wide early and never factored. GOLDEN TIE AFFAIR, with the pace inside, gave way after half.
