Footnotes

PHYXIUS was taken in hand early, moved through on the rail around the turn, was roused at the eight pole and won driving, benefiting from a perfect ride. AL MAX DINER brushed the gate and came out awkwardly at the start, then moved up and pressed the pace in between horses and was clearly second best. V V S FLAWLESS chased the pace inside and could not gain on the leaders when roused in the stretch. TRICK THE HOUSE raced on the rail throughout and did not respond in the stretch. BABYURTHEGREATEST set a pressured pace in between horses and tired in the stretch. SALLY'S FORUM chased the pace three wide and had no rally.
