Footnotes

NORTH EAST BOUND stalked the pace, moved even with the early leader nearing the five sixteenths pole, drew clear in the upper stretch and maintained a wide margin under steady urging. LORD STERLING rated the pace, dropped back from between horses nearing the quarter pole, angled to the outside of the winner losing ground then came back late to place. WHERE'S TAYLOR stalked the pace on the rail, was asked through the far turn, angled off the rail into the upper stretch then leveled off in late stretch. TALK'S CHEAP raced just off the pace, dropped back into the stretch and ran evenly through the stretch. VALHOL raced well back, made a bid into the far turn and had some mild gain in the stretch. DANCIN RAHY was rated close on the outside, ran evenly on the far turn but empty through the stretch. WITH ANTICIPATION was steadied between horses into the first turn, dropped back inside, saved ground on the far turn and offered no rally. VISION AND VERSE was outrun. RIZE was outrun. LEAVE IT TO BEEZER hesitated at the break, advanced on the outside then gave way through the far turn.
