Footnotes

INDY WIND stumbled leaving the gate, rated off the pace off the rail, started his drive approaching the final turn, raced on even terms three wide leaving the quarter pole, drew clear midstretch and finished well under steady handling. SINNERS N SAINTS rated back outside, bid five wide nearing the quarter pole then dueled for place inside the sixteenth pole. SPRING HOUSE, unhurried off the rail, advanced to the heels of the top three nearing the quarter pole, angled out to recover stride and finished well for show while outfinished for place. MALIBU MOONSHINE rated a short lead two deep, contested the final turn, continued between horses into the stretch then weakened at the eighth pole. BUCHAREST rated with the pace inside, contested a short lead through the final turn, remained in a close duel through the upper stretch then weakened nearing the eighth pole. TAP DAY rated off the pace inside, came out entering the stretch then had no rally.
