Footnotes

WITH ANTICIPATION stalked the pace, made his bid into the far turn, took the lead leaving the quarter pole then drew off in the stretch under moderate asking. KEY LORY rated a fast pace, dropped back a notch into the stretch, faded back from the winner but was clearly second best. LYRACIST was unprepared at the start then unhurried, made a bid while angling out through the far turn and had some useful gain in the stretch. SLY JOE was unhurried early on, made a bid on the outside of the far turn then leveled off on the drive. PRIVATELY HELD, just off the pace on the outside, closed the gap through far turn then was used up for the drive. HARRINGTON SOUND was unhurried off the pace then had no response in the drive. CHIEF CASHIER stalked the pace, dropped back under pressure on the far turn and used up for the drive. OROS was used off the pace then tired. ABOVE THE CROWD, just off the pace on the inside, had no response into the far turn.
