Footnotes

SAM'S GONE hustled from the gate, quickly cleared and opened up going into the far turn, was never challenged winning easily being ridden out. TIZ WATCH was brushed by TOUGH GRIND at the start, settled in mid pack, roused coming three wide at the quarter pole, chased loose winner from upper stretch never threatening while proving second best. TOUGH GRIND broke inward brushing TIZ WATCH, rushed up to stalk the winner, began to chase from the quarter pole making no headway, tired mid stretch holding off others. MR TALC trailed soon after the start, saved ground to top of the stretch, angled out and slightly improving position but never factored. VALDE was lightly bumped by SIR BOB after the break, showed brief early foot, chased to mid turn, gave way upper stretch. SIR BOB broke in bumping VALDE shortly after the start and stumbled briefly taking up momentarily, raced well off the rail thereafter, never involved.
