Footnotes

BELOVEDA was off slowly trailing in the opening strides, hustled down the backside racing four wide, dueled with GWAZI leaving the far turn, put that rival away past the quarter pole, remained off the rail entering the stretch, was kept to task drawing off as much the best. GWAZI quickly showed in front, headed by the winner on the far turn, had little resistance coming to the quarter pole proving no match but was clearly second best. TIA RUFINA rated and raced five wide to the half, roused on the bend, improved position but never menaced. MALOU'S MAGIC settled along the inside mid pack, dropped off midway on the second turn, went by two weary foes in the stretch but never factored. THAT LUVIN FEELING raced up close for a half mile, remained a threat to the quarter pole, started to give way entering the stretch and stopped with a furlong to go finishing spent. KALAHARI GIRL was always outrun showing little.
