Footnotes

NASTY BOY broke sharply but was soon headed by FOUR AND FIVE RED, dueled to the quarter pole then disposed that rival in upper stretch, drew off winning with authority being kept to task. FOUR AND FIVE RED rushed hard to head the winner soon after the start, matched strides to the quarter pole, was turned away top of the lane, angled to the rail giving chase in the lane, was tiring but fought determinedly to save second place. GRANDMA'S PASSION tracked around the bend running along the rail, swung out to the four path in upper stretch, bid in tandem vying for a minor award, gained the show position late under strong encouragement. BULIMINELLA GOLD broke a bit awkwardly and took up briefly, trailed to mid turn, swung out five wide upper stretch, improved belatedly just missing third place. SHREKRETIARIAT lacked speed traveling towards the rail, roused from the quarter pole, lacked needed surge never menacing. FORGOT TO FILE was well placed stalking top pair around the turn, gave chase under a drive entering the lane, came up empty weakening from mid stretch. CRAFTY HOUR settled in mid pack running off the rail, tired in the lane despite being hard ridden. PLEASANT MAN was always outrun offering little.
