Footnotes

PRINCEOFTHESTORMYC was in tight near the five eighths pole and brushed, sat patient stalking a pair to duelers to mid turn, moved up running three wide to vie for the lead, took control entering the stretch and won comfortably being ridden out. SHARP STRIKE rushed along the inside to battle for the lead going down the backside, fought hard mid turn dueling in a three way battle, yielded to the winner entering the stretch while angling out to mid track, gave chase under a stiff drive, held place position in a very game try. J T'S BAD BOY settled early racing off the rail down the backside, gained on the bend traveling between foes, came wide into the lane, finished willingly. ICANONLYIMAGINEIT was in tight shortly after the start and bumped when ONE FINE ENDEAVOUR came inward, took back and angled towards the inside, gained momentum near the quarter pole and angled out under a drive, gave chase in the lane but needed more late. PARK AND RIDE lacked speed racing along the inside, angled out top of the lane, gave belated interest running between foes mid stretch. ONE FINE ENDEAVOUR was hustled leaving the gate, angled inward and bumped ICANONLYIMAGINEIT shortly after the start, raced four to five wide entering the stretch under a drive, failed to menace. TOP CAT TOO lacked speed and raced wide down the backside, failed to factor. KING OF KARAKORUM broke sharply and angled to the inside, could never clear over to the rail, dueled between foes at the quarter pole, was all done mid stretch and gave way. EAGER LOVER was always outrun racing along the inside. THE RIDER OF ICANONLYIMAGINEIT CLAIMED FOUL AGAINST THE RIDER OF PRINCEOFTHESTORMYC FOR INTERFERENCE SHORTLY AFTER THE START, AFTER REVIEW, THE STEWARDS DISMISSED THIS CLAIM, RESULTS STOOD AS IS.
