Footnotes

FAIR DINKUM well handled racing up close from the start, asked entering the stretch and split foes at the furlong marker, wore down TIZ FRIDAY in deep stretch to edge clear late under strong handling. TIZ FRIDAY raced four wide into the first turn, dueled to the far turn, moved off leaving the quarter pole, was run down nearing the wire missing in a good effort. ARISTOCRAT AGAIN pressed the runner up from the start, battled to mid stretch racing along the rail, ceded grudgingly late in a hard effort. MAJESTIC VICTORY settled in mid pack, raced well off the rail down the backside, made a bold bid to loom off the leader at the quarter pole, leveled off mid stretch being outfinished for third place. COWBOY CASANOVA stalked traveling three wide early on, gave chase past the quarter pole, lacked rally and tired mid stretch. SLI NA GARPPLE lacked speed racing mid track, swung six wide upper stretch being put to a drive, failed to respond. MR. MARCH was always outrun finishing well beaten in a dull effort.
