Footnotes

AMERICAN MINER away slowly saved ground cutting the corner to upper stretch, surged along the rail getting up on the wire. SEA INLET stalked early then edged to the front on the turn, dueled into upper stretch putting a head in front only to grabbed in the closing strides. SIRR PURR raced evenly saving ground to upper stretch, responded along the inside bidding gamely to the wire. FIDDLERS PRIDE slow early was swung seven wide to upper stretch, closed on the outside pressing hard to the wire. EXCESSIVELY GROOVY veered in brushing the gate, was rushed hard to the top going hard used on pace to upper stretch extended there would come up short late. TENCATI slow early gave a mild rally to upper stretch, went evenly under a drive. EXPLOSIVE WARRIOR hustled out pressured the pace through the turn then wore down in upper stretch. HOLY HIGH VIKING played no factor. FLIP FLOP a step slow early would labor. HANWAY was always outrun.
