Footnotes

BLUE LION moved up running three to four wide into the first turn, edged clear setting a soft pace throughout, challenged from both sides leaving the quarter pole, dug in under strong handling and held sway winning comfortably. I AM THE KING broke for the lead and then was taken back entering the backstretch to stalk, sat up close thru soft splits, urged mid turn and almost drew even with the winner near the quarter pole running along the rail, loomed to deep stretch, proved no match coming to the wire but gamely fought hard proving second best. GLOSS stalked traveling three wide to the half, bid mid turn engaging BLUE LION for the lead, was turned away at the sixteenth pole then got outgamed dueling for second place. GREATER GLORY raced five wide down the backside, put to a drive leaving the far turn, failed to factor. SOUND THE CHARGE lacked speed racing off the rail, offered little. CODE RUNNER duelled for the opening quarter mile running along the rail, started to drop off leaving the half mile marker finishing well beaten.
