Footnotes

SAMURAI PRINCE stalked DEADLY DEALER from the start, set down leaving the quarter pole, drew even turning for home, slowly edged clear inside the furlong marker winning under a drive. DEADLY DEALER broke sharply, set the pace traveling a little off the rail, headed by the winner entering the stretch, yielded stubbornly in deep stretch and was easily second best. IRISH GENTLEMAN was urged shortly after the start giving chase to top pair, raced four wide entering the stretch, failed to menace besting rest. VY VY VY trailed to top of the stretch, angled a bit splitting rivals mid stretch, showed late interest improving placing but never threatened. JEMARU raced wide throughout, failed to menace. SPIRIT TO RUN varied little, never threatened. JAY'S SUAVE was hustled and angled to the rail shortly after the start, gave a brief chase but gave way entering the stretch.
