Footnotes

AROHRAS PUNCHUNA stalked early on, bid two wide coming to the quarter pole, vying for the lead, edged clear mid stretch and angled to the rail, was fully extended to prevail. SIR DUR lacked speed and angled to the rail saving ground around the bend, advanced form the quarter pole, angled out to the three path mid stretch, took aim on the winner and surged in last jumps to just miss, good effort. ROCKY CAFE stalked from the start, swung three to four wide entering the stretch, was hard ridden in the drive and narrowed the gap late but needed a bit more late. SURPRISE MISSILE broke sharply and angled to the rail, headed by the winner at the quarter pole, fought hard to deep stretch, yielded grudgingly and was outfinished fighting for a minor award. UKIDSDRIVEMECRAZY settled in the second flight, rallied coming six wide top of the lane, improved placing but finished evenly late. S S PATRIOT settled in mid pack racing off the rail, failed to respond when roused, no threat. GUNS UP hustled leaving the gate and chased briefly, lost position around the turn, failed to factor. MARK'S MARKONE lacked speed and raced wide around the bend, angled in top of the lane, showed little. LOUGHMOREMAN was always outrun, never involved. ROMAS SPIRIT hustled and raced up close to mid turn, steadily retreated form the quarter pole, offered little.
