Footnotes

BOBS TIEBREAKER raced up close along the rail going down the backstretch, moved clear leaving the far turn, widened on the field entering the stretch, won easily being ridden out. GERI'S KID unhurried and trailed in the early going, urged from the three eighths pole, split foes turning for home and angled out five wide in upper stretch, finished willingly gaining second place but never threatened the winner. GAGE PARK settled in the second flight, rallied splitting foes mid turn, gave chase entering the lane, was outfinished fighting for third place. SKY TAPS well placed early on, saved ground throughout, lacked respond when roused, finished evenly. OH BOY was hard used going into the first turn, set a pressured pace to the half, battled gamely to midway on the second turn, faded from top of the lane, used up. FREEDOM'S HALO tracked to the far turn racing in the four path, gave way past the quarter pole. LINE CAMP stalked to the half traveling three to four wide, gave way entering the stretch finishing spent. GLOSS was in tight running between foes entering the first turn, moved out wide entering the backside, steadily dropped off going to the half, was eased leaving the far turn, rider dismounted and was vanned off.
