Footnotes

LOVER'S STAR stumbled and went to knees at the start, recovered and raced wide going down the backside, asked mid turn, swung six wide into the lane, found best stride in deep stretch, flashed late and just got up for the victory. ALEXAGOGO well placed, tracked a contested pace to mid turn, rallied four wide to vie at the quarter pole, took over and held a clear advantage mid stretch, appeared to be the winner a sixteenth to go, was overpowered in last jumps, just missed, hard try. RAYWICK hustled from the gate, vied for the lead soon after the start, dueled to top of the lane, fought gamely to the wire, was out finished late. BRYONNA'S GOLD raced evenly down the backside, swung seven wide top of the stretch, closed willingly. ORVILLE FOREST reserved early, saved ground on the turn, angled out mid stretch, rallied and finished with interest coming to the wire. MALIBU BEAU pressed racing along the rail down the backside, bid to vie at the quarter pole, weakened mid stretch. MOUNTAINS TO CLIMB lacked speed, angled near the quarter pole, did improve placing but was no factor. NOPROBLEMFOR DINO hustled and pressed early, was in tight racing between rivals and had to steady briefly nearing the far turn, chased on the bend, weakened in the drive. LANGFUHR'S BOY sent hard, dueled to the quarter pole, was all done by upper stretch, gave way throughout the stretch run. NEW COMER lacked speed, offered little. The riders of NOPROBLEMFOR DINO and BRYONNA'S GOLD claimed foul against the rider of RAYWICK citing interference going down the backside, after review, this claim was disallowed. Results stood as is.
