Footnotes

FAISAL PRINCE was a step slow leaving the gate, quickly rushed up take a slight lead, was pressured by MARYLOVESTETON to the quarter pole, put that rival away in upper stretch, raced in the two path to the finish line holding sway under steady encouragement. MO'MILLIONS tracked the pace to top of the lane, angled out three to four wide upper stretch, was hard ridden in the lane and finished willingly proving second best. MARYLOVESTETON pressed the winner to the quarter pole, began to drop off slightly mid stretch, tired late and settled for third place in a game effort. SMILAN IN MILAN stalked to mid turn, was hard ridden giving chase entering the stretch, lacked rally and weakened in the drive. VOODOO DOCTOR lacked speed and trailed racing wide down the backside, asked on the bend, lacked rally never factoring. BYESVILLE hustled from the gate, raced up close briefly running along the rail, gave way leaving the quarter pole.
