Footnotes

DADDYROE raced up close to the leader from the start, bid three wide to vie for the lead at the quarter pole, edged clear mid stretch, was kept to task holding sway late. TEND pressed the early pace along the rail, sat patient to upper stretch, was angled three wide with a furlong to go, was put to strong left handed stick, was turned away by a determined winner but finished a willing second. HARLAN STREET settled nicely racing at mid track, launched rally coming four wide top of the stretch, loomed off of top pair at the eighth pole, needed more punch coming to the wire holding on to third place. DYNAMITE BOB lagged far off the pace, swung five wide into the stretch, narrowed the gap in deep stretch missing a minor award. PATHOKI immediately showed in front, set a torrid pace racing along the inside while under pressure, was all done at the sixteenth pole, used up.
