Footnotes

CATRILLION sent hard, was soon headed by CHIEF MANGO, went head to head to top of the stretch, drew off from mid stretch, was kept to task holding a comfortably advantage to the finish. HOPEFUL BANDIT stalked the winner from the start traveling three wide, gave chase under a stiff drive entering the stretch, needed a bit more late but dug in nearing the wire just holding onto second place. HARD TWO IMAGINE lacked speed running towards the rear, rallied four wide under strong left handed stick from mid stretch, surged at the wire just missing second place. FATHER'S MIG lacked early speed racing mid pack and off the rail, swung five wide upper stretch, showed belated interest closing the gap nearing the finish but never menaced. CHIEF MANGO rushed hard shortly after the start, alternated for the lead with the winner to the three sixteenths, began to faded inside the furlong marker, used up. TEN GALLON was always outrun, never involved. DISTINCT THRILLER hustled and raced up close to midway on the turn, dropped off leaving the quarter pole, no factor.
