Footnotes

DOWNONMAINSTREET stalked a contested pace from the start, bid three to four wide turning for home, raced abreast rivals at the eighth pole, slowly edged away nearing the wire under strong encouragement. SOME KIND OF MAGIC rushed from the gate, dueled traveling three wide midway on the turn, cleared at the quarter pole and angled towards the inside, fought hard when headed by the winner, ceded grudgingly proving a game second best. SELDAN unhurried in the early going, advanced coming three wide into the lane, angled inside with less than a furlong to go, surged willingly picking up the show position. M. J.'S COMMANDER dueled around the bend racing between foes, continued on vying for the lead to the eighth pole, was briefly in tight and steadied briefly, was edged out of third place in last strides. FAPPIE'S BOOKMORE raced evenly at mid track, was hard ridden for upper stretch, raced in the five path from mid stretch, lacked needed kick. CAPTAIN BOB JO JR. was quickly outrun, lagged to top of the stretch, did show belated action mildly improving position but never factored. BRAWNY MOON lacked speed racing mid track throughout, offered little. FORPETEYSSAKE vied briefly for the early lead, began to give way past the quarter pole, finished spent.
