Footnotes

DIAVOLETTO pressured early chasing JOE LOVES MONEY on the turn, wrested the lead in the two path upper stretch drawing out under a drive. JOE LOVES MONEY broke sharply setting the pace on a short lead through the turn, hooked from the inside to upper stretch dug in near mid track proving no match late. ROMAN RAIDER went evenly while saving ground through the turn, lacked surge down the lane while holding the others safe. CHAMPAGNE TONY raced evenly off the pace lacking more. CLEANSSED away slowly would check a spill near the five eighths pole staying well back after. ELUSIVE VIDAR hit a spill near the five eighths pole as the rider lost and never regained his irons. ESCAPISM took a bad step near the five eighths pole losing the rider vanning off after the race. A stewards inquiry into the incident near the five eighths pole resulted in no changes.
